Spend time with your student while making a difference.

While visiting for Spring Family Days, find a volunteer opportunity here in iServe, WVU's online service management system.

<https://iserve.wvu.edu/need/?tag=Spring%20Family%20Weekend%202017>

Students can choose a volunteer opportunity for themselves and make a note in the comments with how many other family members will be coming along!

Questions? Just email them to iserve@mail.wvu.edu

Student Recreation Center - Evansdale

Families can visit the Student Recreation Center during the weekend for free! Take a run on the elevated track or test your skills on the 50-foot climbing wall. You can take a dip in the leisure or lap pool and chill in the 20-person whirlpool. Hours: Friday, 6:00am – 10:00pm, Saturday, 8:00am – 10:00pm, Sunday, 10:00am – 10:00pm. <http://studentreccenter.wvu.edu/>

The Royce J. and Caroline B. Watts Museum

Visit the Royce J. and Caroline B. Watts Museum, is housed in the Benjamin M. Statler College of Engineering and Mineral Resources at West Virginia University. This museum is dedicated to preserving and promoting the social, cultural, and technological history of West Virginia's coal and petroleum industries through the collection, preservation, research and exhibition of historical objects and archival materials. <http://wattsmuseum.wvu.edu/>

The Art Museum of WVU - Evansdale

Visitors can enjoy two exhibition galleries totaling 5,400 sq. ft. in which to view art. The Art Museum presents exhibitions organized from the university art collection as well as host traveling exhibitions from other museums around the country. The building is engineered to be energy-efficient while adjusting light, humidity, and temperature within the appropriate ranges required to protect vulnerable works of art. A university classroom, collection research room, and climate-controlled storage for the art collection are designed to meet professional museum standards. The Art Museum will be open Friday-Sunday from 12:30-4:30pm. <http://artmuseum.wvu.edu/>
